To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is intended to verify that Quinnipiac GAME Forum X is beneficial program for our MBA students with accounting concentration (such as Ahmed Al Qasem) to participate.

Quinnipiac GAME Forum X features keynote speakers, panelists and workshop presenters from world's most influential firms and organizations. These business leaders cover topics in global economy, global markets and investment strategy, and global portfolio management and risk, asset allocation, financial technology (FinTech), to name a few. In addition to the panel sessions, students can also gain new perspectives from students across the country and from overseas who look at world events through the lens of their own experience.

If I can provide additional information, please feel free to call me at 503-370-6883, or email me at ygu@willamette.edu.

Sincerely yours,

Yuqi Gu
